Department of Natural Resources & Environmental Control

Division of Soil and Water Conservation, Delaware Coastal Programs

Delaware Coastal Programs manages coastal resources through a variety of research, permit, grant, and technical assistance programs. Funding and technical assistance is available to county and municipal governments through the Delaware Coastal Programs' Natural Resource Management grant program.

Division of Soil and Water Conservation, Nonpoint Source Program

The Delaware Nonpoint Source Program administers a competitive grant made possible through Section 319 of the Clean Water Act. The grant provides funding for projects designed to reduce nonpoint source (NPS) pollution in Delaware. NPS pollution may be defined as any pollution that originates from a diffuse source (such as an open field or a road) and is transported to surface or groundwaters through leaching or runoff. Reduction of NPS pollution may often be achieved through incorporation of specific best management practices (BMPs) into project work plans. All projects must include matching funding from a nonfederal source totaling at least 40 percent of the overall project cost.

In addition to funding projects that achieve reductions in NPS pollution, the Delaware NPS Program is committed to addressing the issue through educational programs, publications, and partnerships with other organizations working to reduce NPS pollution in Delaware.

The Center for the Inland Bays

The Center for the Inland Bays is a nonprofit organization dedicated to the wise use and enhancement of Delaware's Inland Bays and their associated watersheds. The goals of the Center for the Inland Bays are as follows:

1. To sponsor and support educational activities, restoration efforts, and land acquisition programs that lead to the present and future preservation and enhancement of the Inland Bays watershed.
2. To build, maintain, and foster the partnership among the general public; the private sector; and local, state, and federal governments, which is essential for establishing and sustaining policy, programs, and the political will to preserve and restore the resources of the Inland Bays watershed.
3. To serve as a neutral forum where Inland Bays watershed issues may be analyzed and considered for the purposes of providing responsible officials and the public with a basis for making informed decisions concerning the management of the resources of the Inland Bays watershed.
